

91. Representation

- (1) Subject to this section, in proceedings before the Court under this Act, a party —
 - (a) may appear personally or by his agent; or
 - (b) may be represented by a legal practitioner.
- (2) In this section, “party” includes an intervener.
- (3) A person who is not a legal practitioner within the meaning of this Act but engages in the practice of the law outside the State shall not appear as agent in proceedings before the Court.