Retail Trading Hours Act 1987

An Act relating to the hours of trading for retail shops and for other and incidental purposes.

Part I — Preliminary

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the *Retail Trading Hours Act 1987*¹.

2. Commencement

The provision of this Act shall come into operation on such day or days as is or are, respectively, fixed by proclamation¹.

3. Interpretation

(1) In this Act unless the context otherwise requires —

“agreement” includes any agreement containing provisions, whether express or implied, under or by virtue of which —

- (a) a person authorises, permits or requires a person operating a retail shop to use, in connection with the retail sale of goods or services at the retail shop, a mark identifying, commonly associated with or controlled by that first-mentioned person;
- (b) a person grants a right to, or otherwise authorises or permits, a person operating a retail shop to possess, occupy or use the retail shop in connection with the sale of any goods or the provision of any services;
- (c) a person is entitled or required to supply goods or provide services to the person operating a retail shop for retail sale by the person operating the retail shop; or
- (d) a person operating a retail shop agrees with another person to acquire goods or services from another person (whether a party to the agreement or not) for retail sale by the person operating the retail shop;

“authorised person” means a person authorised in writing by the chief executive officer;

“chief executive officer” means the chief executive officer of the department principally assisting the Minister in the administration of this Act;

“Committee” means the Retail Shops Advisory Committee established under section 17;

“filling station” means a retail shop referred to in section 10(5);

“fuel” means fuel for operating a motor vehicle;

“inspector” means a person designated as an inspector under section 7;

“member” means a member of the Committee;

“operate” means, in relation to a retail shop, conducting or carrying on the business of a retail shop and includes causing, employing or engaging another person to carry on or conduct that business;

“place” includes a building, stall, tent, vehicle, boat or vessel;

“prescribed services” means any one or more of the following services —

- (a) hairdressing;
- (b) pawnbroking or dealing in second-hand goods under the Pawnbrokers and Second-hand Dealers Act 1994;
- (c) broking marine craft or motor vehicles;
- (d) such other services as may be prescribed;

“retail sale” means a sale of goods or services that is not for the purposes of their re-sale;

“retail shop” means any place at, in, on or from which —

- (a) goods are sold by way of retail sale;
- (b) goods are displayed, kept or sold for retail sale; or
- (c) prescribed services are provided by way of retail sale;

“sell” includes barter, supply for profit, offer for sale, expose for sale, send forward or deliver for sale, cause or suffer or permit to be sold and disposal or offer for disposal of goods under credit sale agreement or hire purchase agreement.

s. 4

- (1a) A place that is otherwise a retail shop does not cease to be a retail shop by reason only that meals or refreshments or both are also sold at that place.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act a place at which —
- (a) orders are received or obtained for the retail sale of goods or services; or
 - (b) goods are held or stored for the purposes of retail sale,
- is a retail shop notwithstanding that the goods or services are supplied, or, the orders are received or obtained, at another place.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, a place at which meals or refreshments are sold or served only to persons who are employed or engaged at that place is not a retail shop for the purposes of this Act.
- (4) For the purposes of this Act the metropolitan area means the part of the State within the area described in the regulations.
- [Section 3 amended by No. 1 of 1991 s. 4 and 14; No. 88 of 1994 s. 100.]*

4. Application

- (1) This Act applies only to the part of the State south of the 26th parallel of South Latitude.
- (2) This Act does not apply to a place that is used for or in connection with —
- (a) a show held by an incorporated agricultural or horticultural society;
 - (b) a bazaar or fair the proceeds of which are intended for religious, charitable or public purposes.
- (3) This Act does not apply to a place that is used as —
- (a) a restaurant or a cafe;
 - (b) a take-away-food shop;

- (c) a veterinary clinic; or
 - (d) a retail shop and is located in a public passenger transport terminal or station where public passenger transport services are running.
- (4) Nothing in this Act affects the sale or supply of liquor at licensed premises under the *Liquor Act 1970*².

5. Exemptions

- (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, the Minister may by order published in the Government Gazette provide for exemptions from this Act or such of the provisions of this Act as are specified in the order.
- (2) Section 43(4) and (7) to (9) of the Interpretation Act 1984 applies to an order under subsection (1) as though the order were subsidiary legislation.

[Section 5 amended by No. 1 of 1991 s. 5.]

Part II — Administration

6. Officers

There shall be appointed under and subject to Part 3 of the Public Sector Management Act 1994 such officers and other persons as are necessary for the administration of this Act.

[Section 6 amended by No. 32 of 1994 s. 3(2).]

7. Inspectors

The chief executive officer may designate any person referred to in section 6 as an inspector.

[Section 7 amended by No. 1 of 1991 s. 14.]

8. Certificate of identity

The chief executive officer shall furnish an inspector with a certificate signed by the chief executive officer certifying that that person has been designated an inspector.

[Section 8 amended by No. 1 of 1991 s. 14.]

9. Inspector subject to chief executive officer

In carrying out the functions conferred on an inspector by this Act the inspector shall give effect to any direction given by the chief executive officer.

[Section 9 amended by No. 1 of 1991 s. 14.]

Part III — Retail trading hours

10. Categories of retail shops

- (1) For the purposes of this Act retail shops are assigned different categories as follows —
 - (a) general retail shops;
 - (b) small retail shops;
 - (c) special retail shops; and
 - (d) filling stations.
- (2) Subject to this Act, any retail shop that is not a small retail shop, a special retail shop or a filling station shall be regarded as a general retail shop.
- (3) Subject to this Act, a retail shop shall be regarded as a small retail shop if —
 - (a) only goods or services that are prescribed for the purposes of sale at a small retail shop are sold or provided at the retail shop;
 - (b) the retail shop is owned by one eligible person or not more than 4 eligible persons trading in partnership or by a body corporate with not more than 4 shareholders all of whom are eligible persons;
 - (ba) the retail shop is operated for the benefit of the eligible persons referred to in paragraph (b);
 - (bb) the eligible persons referred to in paragraph (b) are personally and actively engaged in the retail shop;
 - (bc) not more than 5 persons (inclusive of the eligible persons who own and operate the retail shop) work in the retail shop at any one and the same time; and
 - (bd) the retail shop is owned and operated in accordance with the directions given under subsection (3b);

s. 10

- (c) the chief executive officer has issued a certificate in relation to the retail shop certifying that it is a small retail shop in terms of this subsection.
- (3a) A person is not an eligible person for the purposes of subsection (3) unless —
- (a) in relation to a case where the person is the only person in question the person —
 - (i) is a natural person;
 - (ii) does not own or operate, either alone or together with any other person, more than 2 retail shops except as a shareholder in a listed corporation as defined under the *Companies (Western Australian) Code*³;
 - (b) in relation to a case where the person in question is one of a group of persons, the person —
 - (i) is a person to whom the provisions of paragraph (a)(i) and (ii) apply;
 - (ii) does not own or operate another retail shop together with a person who is outside that group of persons; and
 - (iii) does not himself or herself own or operate a retail shop alone if one of the other persons in the group owns or operates a retail shop that is not owned or operated together with the other persons in the group.
- (3b) The Minister may by order give directions for the purposes of subsection (3) and any such order may include directions with respect to —
- (a) the persons who shall be, and, the persons who shall not be, regarded as owners for the purposes of subsection (3);
 - (b) the persons for whose benefit a small retail shop may be owned and operated; and

- (c) the extent to which any person other than a person who owns or operates a small retail shop may benefit from the operation of the small retail shop;
- (d) the extent to which the natural persons who operate the retail shop shall be personally and actively engaged in the operations of the retail shop;
- (e) such other matters (including a requirement that any statement made for the purposes of this section be verified by statutory declaration) as the Minister considers necessary, and effect shall be given to any such order.

- (3c) Without affecting anything in the Interpretation Act 1984 sections 41 to 47 of that Act apply to and in relation to an order made under subsection (3b) as though the order were regulations.
- (3d) A person who is aggrieved by a decision of the chief executive officer refusing the issue of a certificate under subsection (3)(c) may appeal to the Minister whose decision is final.
- (4) Subject to this Act, a retail shop shall be regarded as a special retail shop if —
 - (a) a certificate is issued by the chief executive officer in relation to the retail shop specifying it to be a special retail shop within one of the categories of special retail shops prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; and
 - (b) only the goods or services or both that are prescribed in relation to a special retail shop of that category are sold or provided at the retail shop.
- (5) A retail shop shall be regarded as a filling station if the whole or part of the business of the retail shop constitutes the sale of fuel and for the purposes of this Part any pump or contrivance in a filling station for supplying fuel is deemed to be included in the filling station.

[Section 10 amended by No. 1 of 1991 s. 6 and 14.]

s. 11

11. Issue and cancellation of certificates for small retail shops and special retail shops

- (1) A person who desires to operate a small retail shop or a special retail shop at any place shall apply to the chief executive officer for a certificate in relation to that place in accordance with the regulations.
- (2) If the chief executive officer is satisfied in relation to an application under subsection (1) that there is no reason for the refusal of the application the chief executive officer shall issue a certificate in terms of the application.
- (3) The chief executive officer shall not issue a certificate certifying a filling station to be a small retail shop or a special retail shop.
- (4) The chief executive officer may cancel a certificate certifying a retail shop to be a small retail shop or a special retail shop if the chief executive officer is satisfied —
 - (a) in relation to a small retail shop —
 - (i) that any goods or service other than goods or a service prescribed under section 10(3)(a) is sold or provided at that retail shop;
 - (ii) that the retail shop is not owned or operated in terms of section 10(3) and (3b); or
 - (iii) that the retail shop is operated during the hours it is required to be closed under this Act;
 - or
 - (b) in relation to a special retail shop —
 - (i) that any goods or service other than goods or service prescribed as goods or a service in relation to a special retail shop of that category, are sold or is provided at that retail shop; or
 - (ii) that the special retail shop is operated during the hours it is required to be closed under this Act.

- (5) Where under subsection (4) the chief executive officer cancels a certificate certifying a retail shop to be a small retail shop or a special retail shop the retail shop shall be deemed to be a general retail shop for the purposes of this Act.
- (6) The cancellation of a certificate under this section does not prevent a person from being prosecuted for an offence against this Act.

[Section 11 amended by No. 1 of 1991 s. 7 and 14.]

12. Trading hours for retail shops

- (1) Subject to this Act a general retail shop shall be closed —
 - (a) on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday in each week until 8 a.m. and from and after 6 p.m.;
 - (b) on Thursday in each week, until 8 a.m. and from and after 9 p.m.;
 - (c) on Saturday in each week, until 8 a.m. and from and after 5 p.m.;
 - (d) on Sunday in each week; and
 - (e) on each public holiday and public half-holiday.
- (1a) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c) the Minister may by order published in the Government Gazette fix a time or times from and after which general retail shops shall remain closed on any day in each week instead of the time referred to in any of those provisions and by any such order may —
 - (a) direct that the order applies to such portion or portions of the State as is or are, respectively, specified in the order; and
 - (b) impose such terms, conditions or restrictions as the Minister thinks fit including a condition fixing the closing time or times for general retail shops in the area to which the order applies on any day in each week

referred to in subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c) while the order remains in force.

- (1b) An order under subsection (1a) may be amended or revoked by the Minister by an order published in the Government Gazette.
- (2) Subject to this Act a small retail shop or special retail shop shall be closed on every day of the year until 6 a.m. and from and after 11.30 p.m.

[Section 12 amended by No. 1 of 1991 s. 8.]

13. Special provisions for certain areas and certain shops

- (1) Notwithstanding anything in section 12(1)(c) where the local government of a district that is, in whole or part, is outside the metropolitan area applies to the Minister for the closing of general retail shops in the district or in the portion of the district outside the metropolitan area on and after 1 p.m. on Saturday of each week the Minister may by order direct that general retail shops in the district or in the portion thereof outside the metropolitan area, as the case requires, shall close on and after 1 p.m. on Saturday in each week and the order shall have effect accordingly.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything in section 12(1)(c), where the Minister is satisfied that the persons or the majority of the persons operating general retail shops in which are sold or provided goods or services of a particular class are in favour of those goods or services being not sold or provided on Saturday in each week from and after 1 p.m. the Minister may by order, direct that any general retail shop or any portion of a general retail shop, as the case requires, in which the class of goods or the class of services specified in the order, are sold or provided, shall be closed on Saturday in each week from and after 1 p.m. and the order shall have effect accordingly.
- (2a) Notwithstanding anything in section 14(2)(b), where the local government of a district that includes a non-metropolitan zone applies to the Minister for the closing of filling stations in that non-metropolitan zone on and after 1 p.m. on Saturday of each week the Minister may by order direct that, subject to section 14(14), filling stations in the non-metropolitan zone shall be closed on and from 1 p.m. on Saturday in each week and the order shall have effect accordingly.

- (2b) Where a non-metropolitan zone forms part of more than one local government district an application under subsection (2a) shall be made by the local governments of each of those districts, but where all the local governments in question do not apply the application shall be deemed to have been made only in relation to the portions of the non-metropolitan zone within the districts of the local governments that are applicants under that subsection and any order made by the Minister in relation to such application shall have effect only in those districts.
- (3) An order made by the Minister under this section shall be published in the Government Gazette and may be amended or revoked by the Minister by a further order published in the Government Gazette.
- (4) In subsections (2a) and (2b) —

“non-metropolitan zone” means a zone as defined in section 14(1) that is situated outside the metropolitan area.

[Section 13 amended by No. 1 of 1991 s. 9; No. 14 of 1996 s. 4.]

14. Trading hours and extraordinary trading hours for filling stations

- (1) In this section, unless the contrary intention appears —
- “approved” means approved by the Minister under subsection (13);
- “extraordinary trading hours” means any time other than ordinary trading hours;
- “motor vehicle” means a motor vehicle as defined by the Road Traffic Act 1974;
- “ordinary trading hours” means the hours which under subsection (2) a filling station may be open;

s. 14

“public ambulance” means motor vehicle used exclusively for the purpose of conveying a member of the public to or from a hospital or other place for or after medical treatment;

“requisite” means any thing, not being fuel, necessary or required for equipping or operating a motor vehicle and includes, without derogating from the generality of the foregoing, lubricant in any form, tyre, tube, battery, part and accessory;

“the representative body” means the body known as the Motor Trade Association of Western Australia Incorporated or such other body as is appointed in its place under subsection (19);

“unzoned filling station” means filling station not in a zone;

“zone” means portion of the State prescribed under subsection (6) as a zone;

“zoned filling station” means filling station in a zone.

- (2) Subject to this Act, a filling station other than an unzoned filling station shall be closed —
- (a) on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, in each week, until 7 a.m. and from and after 6 p.m.;
 - (b) on Saturday in each week until 7 a.m. and from and after 6 p.m.;
 - (c) on Sunday in each week; and
 - (d) on Anzac Day, Good Friday and Christmas Day.
- (3) A person who operates a zoned filling station having fuel and requisites for sale at or in, the zoned filling station or a part thereof —
- (a) shall keep the zoned filling station or that part of the zoned filling station, as the case requires, closed; and
 - (b) shall not sell or allow to be sold fuel or requisites,
- except during ordinary trading hours or when required to do so by subsection (14).

- (4) A person who operates an unzoned filling station having fuel and requisites for sale at or in, or at or in a part of, the unzoned filling station may —
- (a) keep the unzoned filling station, or that part of the unzoned filling station, open; and
 - (b) sell or allow to be sold fuel or requisites,
- during such hour as he thinks fit.
- (5) A person who operates a filling station, whether the filling station is in a zone or not, shall not, at any time outside ordinary trading hours prescribed for general retail shops under section 12, sell or allow to be sold at the filling station any thing that is not —
- (a) fuel or a requisite; or
 - (b) one of the goods prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (6) Subject to subsection (7), the Governor may on —
- (a) the approved recommendation of the representative body made to the Minister; or
 - (b) the recommendation of the Minister,
- by regulation prescribe a portion of the State as a zone for the purpose of this section.
- (7) In exercising the power conferred on him by subsection (6), the Governor shall have regard to —
- (a) the area of the proposed zone; and
 - (b) the facilities for the supply of fuel and requisites in the area referred to in paragraph (a).
- (8) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the representative body and subject to subsections (10) and (11), by order published in the Gazette specify in relation to a zone —
- (a) which filling station or filling stations in the zone shall be open, and the days and times during which the filling station, or the respective days and times during which those respective filling stations, if more than one, shall be open for the sale of fuel and requisites during extraordinary trading hours; and

s. 14

- (b) whether all forms of fuel or requisites, or any form of fuel or requisite only, shall be sold by the shopkeeper of the filling station so specified, or the shopkeepers of the filling stations so specified, during the days and times so specified, but shall exercise the power conferred by this subsection so that fuel and requisites will be available during extraordinary trading hours at such filling station or filling stations in the zone only as are necessary in order to cater for requirements during extraordinary trading hours.

- (9) The Minister may by order published in the Gazette revoke or amend an order made under subsection (8).
- (10) The Minister may, subject to subsection (11), exercise any power conferred on him by subsection (8) or (9) in respect of any zoned filling station the operator of which is not a member of the representative body, notwithstanding that the representative body has not made a recommendation in respect of that zoned filling station, but in so doing the Minister shall as far as is practicable preserve in respect of that zoned filling station uniformity with the matters specified by orders made on the approved recommendation of the representative body under subsection (8) in respect of other filling stations in the same zone as that zoned filling station.
- (11) If, prior to the first exercise in respect of a zone by the Minister of any of the powers conferred on him by subsection (8) or (10), a person who operates a filling station in the zone —
 - (a) gives notice in writing to the Minister that he does not wish to keep open that filling station during extraordinary trading hours, none of those powers shall be exercised or take effect so as to require that filling station to be kept open during extraordinary trading hours; or

- (b) does not give notice in writing to the Minister that he does not wish to keep open that filling station during extraordinary trading hours and any of those powers has or have been exercised in respect of that filling station, that shopkeeper may give notice in writing to the Minister not less than one month before the expiry of any period during which the exercise of that power or those powers is effective that after the expiry of that period he does not wish to keep open that filling station during extraordinary trading hours, in which case that power or those powers shall not be exercised or take effect so as to require that filling station to be kept open after the expiry of that period during extraordinary trading hours.

- (12) If the representative body, after having been requested in writing to do so by the Minister, does not within the period specified in that request or within such longer period as the Minister allows make a recommendation to the Minister in respect of any of the matters referred to in subsection (6) or (8), the Minister may —

- (a) in the case of a matter referred to in subsection (6), make the recommendation and the Governor may exercise the power conferred on him by that subsection in respect of that matter; or
- (b) in the case of a matter referred to in subsection (8), exercise any power conferred on him by that subsection in respect of that matter, as if the appropriate approved recommendation had been made by the representative body.

- (13) When the representative body makes a recommendation to the Minister in respect of any of the matters referred to in subsection (6) or (8) and the Minister considers that it is necessary or in the circumstances of the case desirable in the public interest to do so, the Minister may —

s. 14

- (a) in the case of the matter referred to in subsection (6), approve that recommendation without modifying it or, after consulting the representative body, approve that recommendation after modifying it in such manner as he thinks fit; or
 - (b) in the case of a matter referred to in subsection (8), act on that recommendation without modifying it or, after consulting the representative body, act on that recommendation after modifying it in such manner as he thinks fit.
- (14) A person who operates a filling station specified under subsection (8), (9) or (10) shall —
- (a) subject to subsection (11) keep that filling station open; and
 - (b) on tender of the price reasonably charged, if required, sell such fuel or requisite, during such times in extraordinary trading hours as is or are so specified in respect of that filling station.

Penalty: $40.

- (15) Proof that a person who operates a filling station specified under subsection (8), (9) or (10), through no fault on his part, was unable, when required, to supply for sale any fuel or requisite is a defence to a charge of an offence against subsection (14)(b).
- (16) Notwithstanding anything in this section, an offence against this section is not committed by —
- (a) a person in supplying at any time, or in opening a filling station at any time in order to supply, any fuel or requisite for the purpose of enabling a public ambulance to proceed or continue on any journey;
 - (b) the Royal Automobile Club of W.A. (Incorporated) (in this paragraph called “the Club”) or any of its servants in supplying at any time in an emergency any fuel or requisite for the purpose of enabling a motor vehicle of a member of the Club to continue on the journey on which it was proceeding when the emergency occurred;

- (c) a person in opening a filling station in a zone at any time other than in the ordinary trading hours or extraordinary trading hours for filling stations in the zone in order to supply, and in supplying, any fuel or requisite that is urgently and necessarily required for the operation of a motor vehicle if —
- (i) the person is authorised in writing by the Minister to do so;
 - (ii) that filling station is in a zone no part of which is less than 32 kilometres from the General Post Office in Perth;
 - (iii) that filling station is opened for that purpose only;
 - (iv) that filling station is closed immediately after the sale of that fuel or requisite is made; and
 - (v) the door of that filling station is kept locked except for the admission and exit of the person purchasing that fuel or requisite;

or

- (d) a person who —
- (i) supplies; or
 - (ii) opens a filling station for the purpose of supplying, at any time other than during ordinary trading hours a requisite, if —

- (iii) the requisite is urgently and necessarily required to enable a motor vehicle to proceed or continue on any journey; and

s. 14

- (iv) that person holds a permit issued and in force under subsection (17) and complies with the terms and conditions to which that permit is subject.
- (17) The Minister may issue, subject to such terms and conditions (including the requirements of subsection (16)(c)(iii), (iv) and (v)) as the Minister thinks fit to impose, a permit in writing for the purposes of subsection (16)(d)(iv) and may amend or revoke such a permit.
- (18) A person who operates a zoned filling station having fuel for sale shall, while the zoned filling station is closed during extraordinary trading hours, cause to be displayed in a conspicuous place facing the street or road on which the zoned filling station is situated a notice in white letters of not less than 50 millimetres in height on a blackboard stating —
 - (a) the hours during which the zoned filling station is closed; and
 - (b) the locality of the filling station nearest the zoned filling station that is required to be kept open under subsection (14) during extraordinary trading hours.
- (19) If the representative body is dissolved or becomes defunct, the Governor may by regulation appoint in its place such body as he thinks fit to be the representative body.
- (20) If an agreement relating to a lease, letting or the sale and purchase of, or a licence to occupy, premises the whole or part of which is used or intended by the parties to that agreement to be used for the sale of any fuel or requisite was made prior to, or was current on, 1 January 1964, that agreement shall be deemed to include provision that, if —
 - (a) any party to that agreement claims that because of any of the provisions of this section any of the provisions of that agreement should be reviewed and adjusted; and
 - (b) the parties to that agreement cannot agree in respect of the review and adjustment referred to in paragraph (a), the differences of those parties shall be settled on reference to arbitration under the Commercial Arbitration Act 1985.

- (21) Without limiting the operation of section 16, where a term or covenant of an agreement relating to a filling station requires the person operating the filling station to open the filling station for more than 61 hours in a week, then the term or covenant is null and void.

[Section 14 amended by No. 1 of 1991 s. 10; No. 84 of 2004 s. 80.]

15. Permits

- (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Part a person who operates a retail shop, or, a body consisting of persons who operate a class of retail shops or retail shops in a part of the State, may apply to the chief executive officer for a permit to open the shop operated by him or the shops operated by its members, as the case requires, at times other than the times specified in section 12 or to sell goods or provide services notwithstanding that those goods or services are not goods or services prescribed for the purposes of section 10(3)(a) or 10(4)(b), as the case requires.
- (2) Where an application is made under subsection (1) and the chief executive officer is satisfied in relation to the shop or class of shops referred to in the application that it is desirable or necessary in the interests of the public that the shop or class of shops should be open or should be permitted to sell goods or provide services that are not goods or services, or both, prescribed for the purposes of section 10(3)(a) or 10(4)(b), as the case requires, by reason of an event or any circumstances that is or are in the opinion of the chief executive officer relevant the chief executive officer may issue a permit in terms of the application or in such terms as the chief executive officer thinks fit authorising the applicant or applicants to open the shop or shops referred to in the application during such hours or periods as are specified in the permit or to sell such goods or classes of goods or provide such services or classes of services as are specified in the permit or both.

- (3) The chief executive officer may impose terms and conditions on a permit issued under subsection (2) including conditions as to the closing of retail shops specified in the permit.

[Section 37 amended by No. 1 of 1991 s. 14.]

38. Protection of officers, members and others

No liability attaches to the chief executive officer, any inspector, authorised person, officer of the Department, or to the Committee or a sub-committee or any member of the Committee or any sub-committee for any act or omission that occurred in good faith and in exercise or purported exercise or in discharge or purported discharge of his or its functions under this Act.

[Section 38 amended by No. 1 of 1991 s. 14.]

39. Evidentiary

In any prosecution for offences against this Act —

- (a) it is not necessary to prove the appointment of an inspector or authorised person or his authority to do any act, to issue any order, to give any direction or notice, to make any request or to take any proceedings, but nothing in this paragraph prevents the right of the accused to prove the extent of that authority;
- (b) a signature purporting to be that of the Minister, the chief executive officer or any inspector or authorised person shall be taken to be the signature of the person whose signature it purports to be until the contrary is proved;
- (c) a statement signed by the chief executive officer that a certificate or permit, of the description mentioned in the statement has or had not been issued pursuant to this Act to a person in respect of any premises specified in the statement, and, in the case of a certificate or permit that has been so issued, as to the date of issue of, and the particulars contained in, the certificate or permit, is evidence of the matters specified in the statement;

- (d) the allegation in or averment in any charge that any building, premises or other place is, or was at the time stated therein, a retail shop, is evidence thereof;
- (e) evidence of a person being found in any shop is proof that the person was employed therein unless the contrary is proved;
- (f) it shall not be necessary to prove the limits of any area, part of an area, radius or zone prescribed by or under this Act, but this paragraph does not prevent the right of the accused to prove the facts relating thereto;
- (g) a statement signed by the chief executive officer stating the class to which any retail shop specified in the certificate belongs, or stating that a class of articles as so specified are usually sold in a specified class of business, is proof of the matters so specified until the contrary is proved; and
- (h) any work done in a retail shop shall be deemed to have been done, or any person employed therein shall be deemed to have been employed, with the knowledge and by the authority of the person operating the retail shop unless the contrary is proved.

[Section 39 amended by No. 1 of 1991 s. 14; No. 84 of 2004 s. 80 and 82.]

40. Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations prescribing all matters that are required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed or are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for giving effect to the purposes of this Act.

s. 41

- (2) Without limiting the generality of this subsection, the regulations may —
- (a) prescribe the forms and documents that are required to be given under this Act or kept for the purposes of this Act;
 - (b) prescribe requirements relating to the giving, furnishing and keeping of information and forms under this Act;
 - (c) provide for and regulate applications for and the granting of permits, certificates or other authorities under this Act;
 - (d) prescribe fees payable under this Act;
 - (e) prescribe penalties not exceeding $1 000 for an offence against any regulations under this Act and provide in the case of a continuing offence for a penalty not exceeding $300 for every day during which the offence continues.

41. Review of Act

- (1) As soon as is practicable after the expiration of the period of 5 years following the coming into operation of this Act the Minister shall cause an investigation and review to be conducted, and a report to be prepared as to —
- (a) the operation of this Act;
 - (b) the operation of the Committee; and
 - (c) the need for this Act to continue in operation.
- (2) The Minister shall cause a copy of the report prepared for the purposes of subsection (1) to be laid before each House of Parliament as soon as is practicable after it is completed.

42. Savings

- (1) Notwithstanding anything in section 10(3) or 10(4) where a retail shop was immediately before the commencement day an exempted shop for the purposes of the *Factories and Shops Act 1963*⁵ the person operating the retail shop is entitled to be issued with a permit under section 15 of this Act to sell at that retail shop goods that were prescribed to be exempted goods under the regulations made under that Act and in force immediately before the commencement day and to remain open as though section 12 of this Act had not come into operation.

- (2) In subsection (1) —

“commencement day” means the day on which this Act comes into operation.

[Section 42 amended by No. 73 of 1994 s. 4.]

43. Referendums on trading hours

- (1) In this section —

“day of the next general election” means the day fixed under the Electoral Act 1907 as the polling day for the first general election for the Legislative Assembly to be held after the Retail Trading Hours Amendment (Referendums) Act 2004 comes into operation;

“electors” has the meaning given to that term in section 2(1) of the Referendums Act 1983.

- (2) Questions 1 and 2 set out in subsection (3) are to be submitted to the electors under and in accordance with the Referendums Act 1983 on the day of the next general election.

- (3) The questions to be submitted to the electors are —

- (a) question 1:

Extended week night shopping

Do you believe that the Western Australian community would benefit if trading hours in the Perth Metropolitan Area were extended to allow general retail shops to trade until 9 pm Monday to Friday?

(b) question 2:

Extended Sunday shopping

Do you believe that the Western Australian community would benefit if trading hours in the Perth Metropolitan Area were extended to allow general retail shops to trade for 6 hours on Sunday?

- (4) When an elector is voting at the referendum as to question 1 —
- (a) if the elector believes that the Western Australian community would benefit if trading hours in the Perth Metropolitan Area were extended to allow general retail shops to trade until 9 pm Monday to Friday, the elector is to place the word “Yes” in the space provided on the ballot paper for the answer to that question; or
 - (b) if the elector does not believe that the Western Australian community would benefit if trading hours in the Perth Metropolitan Area were extended to allow general retail shops to trade until 9 pm Monday to Friday, the elector is to place the word “No” in the space provided on the ballot paper for the answer to that question.
- (5) When an elector is voting at the referendum as to question 2 —
- (a) if the elector believes that the Western Australian community would benefit if trading hours in the Perth Metropolitan Area were extended to allow general retail shops to trade for 6 hours on Sunday, the elector is to place the word “Yes” in the space provided on the ballot paper for the answer to that question; or
 - (b) if the elector does not believe that the Western Australian community would benefit if trading hours in the Perth Metropolitan Area were extended to allow general retail shops to trade for 6 hours on Sunday, the elector is to place the word “No” in the space provided on the ballot paper for the answer to that question.

² Repealed by the Liquor Licensing Act 1988.

³ In respect of matters arising after 1 Jan 1991, the operation of the Companies (Western Australia) Code is subject to the provisions in the Corporations (Western Australia) Act 1990 Pt. 13 Div. 2. The Corporations (Western Australia) Act 1990 was superseded by the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth on 15 Jul 2001.

⁴ Under the Public Sector Management Act 1994 s. 112(2), a reference in a written law to the Public Service Board is, unless the contrary intention appears or it is otherwise provided under the Acts Amendment (Public Sector Management) Act 1994, to be construed as if it had been amended to be a reference to the Minister for Public Sector Management (as defined in the Interpretation Act 1984). This reference was amended under the Reprints Act 1984 s. 7(5)(a).

⁵ Repealed by the Industrial Relations Legislation Amendment and Repeal Act 1995.

⁶ On the date as at which this compilation was prepared, the Retail Shops and Fair Trading Legislation Amendment Act 2006 Pt. 2 had not come into operation. It reads as follows:

Part 2 — Retail Trading Hours Act 1987

Division 1 — Amendments

3. The Act amended

The amendments in this Part are to the Retail Trading Hours Act 1987.

4. Section 3 amended

Section 3(1) is amended after the definition of “member” by inserting the following definitions —

“motor vehicle” has the meaning given to that term in the Road Traffic Act 1974 section 5(1);

“motor vehicle shop” means a general retail shop or portion of a general retail shop, as the case may be —

- (a) in, on or from which motor vehicles are sold by way of retail sale; or
- (b) in, on or from which spare parts for motor vehicles are sold by way of retail sale in conjunction with the sale of motor vehicles;

5. Section 5 replaced

Section 5 is repealed and the following section is inserted instead —

5. Interpretation Act applies to orders

- (1) An order made by the Minister under this Act is subsidiary legislation as defined in the Interpretation Act 1984 section 5.
- (2) The Interpretation Act 1984 section 42 applies to an order made under section 10(3b) or 14B(4) as if the order were a regulation.

6. Section 10 amended

- (1) Section 10(3) is amended as follows:

- (a) by deleting paragraph (a) and inserting the following paragraph instead —

- (a) neither motor vehicles, nor goods or services prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph, are sold or provided at the retail shop;

”;

- (b) in paragraph (b) by deleting “4” in both places where it occurs and inserting instead —

“ 6 ”;

- (c) in paragraph (bc) by deleting “5 persons” and inserting instead — “ 13 persons ”;
- (d) in paragraph (bc) after “shop”, in the first place where it occurs, by inserting —
but excluding any person who is employed at the retail shop as an apprentice, as defined in the Industrial Training Act 1975 section 4(1)
”;
- (e) after paragraph (bc) by deleting “and”;
- (f) after paragraph (bd) by inserting —
(be) no owner of the retail shop is related, in the opinion of the chief executive officer, to an owner of another retail shop that is in such close proximity to the first-mentioned retail shop that, in the opinion of the chief executive officer, those retail shops are to be regarded as occupying the same location; and
”;
- (g) in paragraph (c) after “subsection” by inserting —
“ , and that certificate has not been cancelled ”.

- (8) In this section —
- “specified”, in relation to an order, means specified in the order.

10. Section 13 repealed

Section 13 is repealed.

11. Section 14 replaced by sections 14 to 14C

Section 14 is repealed and the following sections are inserted instead —

14. No restriction on trading hours for filling stations

A filling station may be open at any time.

14A. Sale of goods at filling stations

- (1) A person who operates a filling station is not, at any time outside the trading hours referred to in section 12(1), to sell or allow to be sold at the filling station any thing that is not —
- (a) fuel or an accessory;
 - (b) one of the goods prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph;
 - (c) in the case of a small filling station — fuel or an accessory or one of the goods prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (b) or this paragraph; or
 - (d) in the case of a prescribed small filling station — fuel or an accessory or one of the goods prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (b) or (c) or this paragraph.
- (2) In this section —
- “accessory” means —
- (a) lubricant in any form, tyre, tube, battery, part or accessory; or

- (b) any other thing, other than fuel, required to equip or operate a motor vehicle.

14B. Small filling stations

- (1) For the purposes of section 14A(1)(c), a filling station is to be regarded as a small filling station if —
 - (a) the filling station is owned by —
 - (i) one eligible person;
 - (ii) not more than 6 eligible persons trading in partnership; or
 - (iii) a body corporate with not more than 6 shareholders all of whom are eligible persons;
 - (b) the filling station is operated for the benefit of the eligible persons referred to in paragraph (a);
 - (c) the eligible persons referred to in paragraph (a) are personally and actively engaged in the filling station;
 - (d) not more than 10 persons (including the eligible persons who own and operate the filling station) work in the filling station at any one and the same time;
 - (e) the filling station is owned and operated in accordance with the directions given under subsection (4); and
 - (f) the chief executive officer has issued a certificate in relation to the filling station certifying that it is a small filling station in terms of this subsection, and that certificate has not been cancelled.
- (2) A person is not an eligible person for the purposes of subsection (1) unless —
 - (a) in relation to a case where the person is the only person in question, the person —
 - (i) is a natural person; and
 - (ii) does not own or operate, either alone or together with any other person, more than 3 filling stations except as a shareholder in a listed corporation as defined in the Commonwealth Corporations Act 2001 section 9;
 - (b) in relation to a case where the person in question is one of a group of persons, the person —
 - (i) is a person to whom the provisions of paragraph (a)(i) and (ii) apply;
 - (ii) does not own or operate another filling station together with a person who is outside that group of persons;

- (iii) does not himself or herself own or operate a filling station alone if 2 or more other persons in the group each own or operate a filling station that is not owned or operated together with the other persons in the group; and
 - (iv) does not himself or herself own or operate a filling station alone if another person in the group owns or operates 2 or more filling stations that are not owned or operated together with the other persons in the group.
- (3) A person who operates a small filling station is required to notify the chief executive officer within 14 days after —
- (a) a person becomes or ceases to be an owner of the filling station; and
 - (b) if the owner of the filling station is a body corporate — a person becomes or ceases to be a shareholder of the body corporate.
- (4) The Minister may by order give directions for the purposes of subsection (1) and any such order may include directions with respect to —
- (a) the persons who are to be, and the persons who are not to be, regarded as owners for the purposes of subsection (1);
 - (b) the extent to which any person other than a person who owns or operates a small filling station may benefit from the operation of the small filling station;
 - (c) the extent to which the natural persons who operate the filling station are to be personally and actively engaged in the operations of the filling station;
 - (d) such other matters (including a requirement that any statement made for the purposes of this section be verified by statutory declaration) as the Minister considers necessary, and effect is to be given to any such order.

14C. Issue and cancellation of certificates for small filling stations

- (1) A person who desires to operate a small filling station at any place is to apply to the chief executive officer for a certificate in relation to that place in accordance with the regulations.
- (2) If the chief executive officer is satisfied in relation to an application under subsection (1) that there is no reason for the refusal of the application, the chief executive officer is to issue a certificate in terms of the application.

- (3) A person who is aggrieved by a decision of the chief executive officer refusing the issue of a certificate under subsection (2) may appeal to the Minister, whose decision is final.
- (4) The chief executive officer may cancel a certificate certifying a filling station to be a small filling station if the chief executive officer is satisfied —
 - (a) that any thing other than —
 - (i) fuel or an accessory (as defined in section 14A(2)); or
 - (ii) goods prescribed for the purposes of section 14A(1)(b), (c) or (in the case of a prescribed small filling station) (d), are sold at the filling station outside the trading hours referred to in section 12(1);
 - (b) that the filling station is not owned or operated in accordance with section 14B(1) and (4); or
 - (c) that notification has not been given as required by section 14B(3).
- (5) The cancellation of a certificate under this section does not prevent a person from being prosecuted for an offence against this Act.

12. Section 15 amended

- (1) Section 15(1) is repealed and the following subsection is inserted instead —

“

- (1) Despite the provisions of this Part —
 - (a) a person who operates a retail shop;
