WESTPAC BANKING CORPORATION
(CHALLENGE BANK) ACT 1996

No. 33 of 1996

AN ACT to provide for the transfer to Westpac Banking Corporation of the banking business of Challenge Bank Limited and for connected purposes.

[Assented to 19 September 1996]

Reasons for enactment

1. Challenge Bank Limited ACN: 009 230 433 (“Challenge”) is a company incorporated in Western Australia and is a company within the meaning of the Corporations Law and is a company limited by shares.
2. Westpac Banking Corporation ARBN: 007 457 141 (“Westpac”) is a body corporate constituted by an Act of the Parliament of New South Wales.
3. Westpac carries on the business of banking throughout Australia and elsewhere in the world, and Challenge carries on the business of banking principally in Western Australia and Victoria but also in the other States and Territories of Australia.
4. On 21 December 1995 Westpac became the beneficial owner of the whole of the issued share capital of Challenge and since that date Challenge has been a wholly owned subsidiary of Westpac.
5. Under the conditions imposed on the authority of Challenge to carry on banking business in Australia, Challenge is required to surrender that authority.
6. Accordingly it is necessary and expedient to transfer the banking business of Challenge to Westpac, but at the same time to facilitate the preservation of the character of the business of Challenge.
7. On 22 November 1995 the Treasurer of Australia consented pursuant to section 63 of the Banking Act 1959 of the Commonwealth to the amalgamation of the banking business of Challenge with that of Westpac.
8. It is expedient to enact legislation to provide for the vesting of the banking business of Challenge in Westpac.

The Parliament of Western Australia enacts as follows:

- (d) the custody of any document, goods or thing held by Challenge as bailee for any other person at any office or branch or agency of Challenge is by virtue of this Act transferred to Westpac at the commencement time, and the rights, duties and liabilities of Challenge under any contract of bailment relating to the document, goods or thing are transferred at that time to Westpac;

- (f) any information held immediately before the commencement time by Challenge relating to a customer or depositor of that bank is available to and may be used by Westpac on and after the commencement time.

- (2) Despite subsection (1) and sections 7 and 8 —

 - (b) Westpac is, in relation to any security held by Challenge immediately before the commencement time over money on deposit with Westpac, entitled to the same rights and priorities and subject to the same liabilities as Challenge would have been had the security continued to be held by Challenge.

(4) A person is not entitled to receive any payment or other benefit by reason only of having ceased to be a Westpac employee as a result of subsection (1).

(5) Every reference to Westpac (or a business name of Westpac) in any document in force immediately before the commencement time relating to the employment of a Westpac employee by Westpac is to be read on and after the commencement time as a reference to Challenge, unless the contrary intention appears, and to the extent that any such document was binding on and enforceable by, or against, Westpac before the commencement time the document is binding and of full force and effect in every respect against Challenge as if Challenge instead of Westpac were a party to it or bound by it.

(6) Subsection (5) does not apply in respect of any document relating to a provident, benefit, superannuation or retirement fund relating to a Westpac employee.

(7) Sections 13 and 15 apply in relation to a Westpac employee, or a former employee of Westpac or person who served with Westpac, as if in those sections —

- (a) a reference to “Challenge” were a reference to “Westpac” (except in the phrase “Challenge employee”); and
- (b) a reference to “Westpac” were a reference to “Challenge”.

(8) A person who is employed by Challenge is to be engaged exclusively in the provision of services to Westpac and is subject to the direction and control of the officers of Westpac who are responsible for the control of the business of Westpac in Western Australia.

(9) Subsection (8) —

- (a) applies subject to any law or award or determination relating to the employment of the person; and
- (b) ceases to apply upon Challenge ceasing to be a related body corporate of Westpac within the meaning of section 9 of the Corporations Law.

Business Names

11. (1) Subject to subsection (2), at the commencement time the Commissioner (within the meaning of the Business Names Act 1962) is to register each business name listed in Schedule 1 as a business name of Westpac and for as long as each name is registered in relation to Westpac, Westpac is entitled to carry on business under that name, in accordance with the Business Names Act 1962, and may also carry on the same or a similar business under a different business name or names or its own name in the State.

(2) Before the registration of each business name listed in Schedule 1 Westpac is to make application under the Business Names Act 1962 for registration of that name and is to comply with all relevant provisions of that Act relating to that application.

(3) In addition to any other names under which it is entitled to carry on business in the State, during the transition period Westpac may carry on business in the State under the business name “Challenge Bank Limited” as if that name was registered under the Business Names Act 1962 as a business name of Westpac.

Application of the Consumer Credit (Western Australian) Act 1996

12. (1) In this section —

“undertaking of Challenge” in respect of the transition period, means that part of the undertaking of Westpac —

- (a) divested from Challenge and vested in Westpac under section 7 (1); or
- (b) acquired using the same products as were offered by Challenge before the commencement time.

(2) If, after the commencement of section 13 of the Consumer Credit (Western Australian) Act 1996, Westpac or Challenge find that in relation to the undertaking of Challenge or the business of Challenge it is not practicable to comply with that Act in relation to any particular matter, situation or product, then that Act does not apply in respect of that matter, situation or product and the Credit Act 1984 (as in force before the commencement of Part 5 of the Consumer Credit (Western Australian) Act 1996) continues to apply in respect of that matter, situation or product.

(3) Subsection (2) has effect despite the Consumer Credit (Western Australian) Act 1996.

(4) The exemption granted under subsection (2) applies until the day on which the transition period ends unless —

- (a) any condition set out in a letter dated 6 May 1996 from the Minister for Fair Trading to the Chief Executive Officer of Challenge has not been complied with; and
- (b) the Minister responsible for the administration of the Credit Act 1984 gives written notice to the Chief Executive Officer of Westpac that such a condition has not been complied with and that this section will cease to apply on such day as is specified in the notice, in which case it ceases to apply on the day specified in the notice.

(5) Sections 19A (1) and 19B of the Credit Act 1984 apply in respect of the undertaking of Challenge and the business of Challenge as if a reference in those provisions to “the commencement day” were a reference to the day after the day on which the exemption granted under subsection (2) ceases to apply in accordance with subsection (4).

Legal proceedings

13. (1) This section applies to —

- (a) any action, arbitration or proceeding or cause of action, arbitration or proceeding which is at the commencement time pending or existing by, against, or in favour of, Challenge; and
- (b) any cause of action, arbitration or proceeding by, against, or in favour of, Challenge, which arises after the commencement time in respect of a contract made by Challenge before the commencement time or which arises in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by Challenge before the commencement time, but does not apply to any action, arbitration or proceeding or to any cause of action relating to —

- (c) an excluded asset;
- (d) the employment of a Challenge employee; or
- (e) a provident, benefit, superannuation or retirement fund relating to Challenge employees.

(2) Any action, arbitration or proceeding and any cause of action, arbitration or proceeding to which this section applies, is not abated or discontinued or in any way prejudicially affected by reason of this Act, and may, without any further act, deed or instrument other than any appropriate amendment of the records of the relevant court or tribunal, be prosecuted and continued and enforced by or against Westpac, in its own name as and when it might have been prosecuted, continued and enforced by or against Challenge if this Act had not been enacted.

(3) Despite subsection (2), the court, tribunal or other person making or entering any judgment, order or award for the payment of any sum of money, whether ascertained or to be ascertained, against Westpac in any legal or arbitral proceeding to which this section applies may, at the request of any party in whose favour the judgment, order or award is being made or entered, make or enter the judgment, order or award against both Challenge and Westpac, and the judgement, order or award may, when so made or entered, be enforced against both Challenge and Westpac.

Amendment of Court documents where Westpac erroneously made a party

14. (1) Any party to any action, arbitration or proceeding relating to an excluded asset or a Challenge or Westpac employee is entitled at any stage to seek leave to amend any writ, pleading or other document filed by the party in the action, arbitration or proceeding by substituting for the name of Westpac the name of Challenge as party.

(2) No order is to be made against any party so amending to pay to Westpac or to Challenge any costs occasioned by that amendment.

(3) The action, arbitration or proceeding is to be continued as if Challenge had originally been made a party to it.

Evidence

15. (1) Any book or document which if this Act had not been enacted would have been evidence in respect of any matter for or against Challenge is, subject to this Act, on and after the commencement time, to be admissible in evidence in respect of the same matter for or against Westpac.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the bankers' books of Challenge are for the purposes of sections 89 to 96 of the Evidence Act 1906 deemed to be, and to have been, bankers' books used in the ordinary business of Westpac.

(3) For the purposes of this section —

“bankers' books” has the same meaning as in the Evidence Act 1906.

Construction of references

16. Subject to this Act, if any written law (other than this Act) or any document, whenever made or executed or any register established or kept under any Act contains any reference express or implied to Challenge, the reference is, on and after the commencement time to be read and construed as a reference to Westpac, unless the context otherwise requires.

PART 3 — GENERAL

Payment of amount in lieu of State taxes and charges

17. (1) Westpac is to pay to the Treasurer in lieu of all taxes, duties and charges for which it would otherwise be liable under the law of the State as a result of, or in connection with, the transfer of the undertaking of Challenge to Westpac a sum which is, in the opinion of the Treasurer, equal to the amount of those taxes, duties and charges.

(2) The amount payable under subsection (1) is to be determined by the Treasurer in accordance with such principles as the Treasurer thinks appropriate.

(3) The Treasurer is to give a certificate to Westpac when satisfied that the sum due under subsection (1) has been paid stating that the sum due under that subsection has been paid.

Effect of things done under this Act

18. (1) Nothing effected by this Act or done or suffered by Challenge or Westpac under this Act or done to give effect to this Act —

(2) If any dealing or transaction is entered into by Westpac with any person, in relation to or in connection with an excluded asset, it is to be deemed in favour of that person that Westpac has full power and authority to enter into that dealing or transaction as if the excluded asset had vested in Westpac under this Act.

(3) Nothing in this section affects the liability of Westpac to Challenge in respect of anything done, or purporting to be done, by Westpac in relation to or in connection with an excluded asset.

23. The Registrar of Titles, on being requested to do so and on production of any relevant Crown Grant or duplicate certificate of title or other relevant instrument and payment of any relevant fees due under any written law, is to make any amendments to the Register Book under the Transfer of Land Act 1893 and to any Crown Grant, duplicate certificate of title, duplicate registered instrument or other document that are necessary because of the operation of this Act.

Certificates in relation to charges
