NOTE:—These Tables show the times at which the Trains may be expected to arrive and depart from the several Stations. Every exertion will be made to ensure punctuality; but the arrival and departure of the Trains at the time stated will not be guaranteed; nor will the Company be responsible for delay, or any consequence therefrom.

Perth Time will be kept at all Stations.

Passengers can be booked at the Stations only on condition that there is room in the carriages. The tickets furnished to Passengers on payment of their fares will be required to be produced or given up whenever demanded by any Railway Officer or Servant, it being distinctly understood that the tickets remain the property of the Company and are not sold to passengers. Any passenger unable or refusing to produce the required ticket or travelling with one that is illegible will be charged the fare from the most distant station whence the train started. These tickets are not transferable, but are available only for the persons to whom they are issued.

The departure of trains will be delayed or otherwise, under special circumstances, at the discretion of the Company.

*Trains will only stop when required to pick up or set down Passengers at Stations marked thus*. Passengers desiring to alight must give notice to the Guard at the previous Stopping Station.

Return Tickets at Single fare and a half for the double journey will be issued at all Stations available by all ordinary trains for the under-mentioned periods. For distances of one hundred miles and under, Seven Days; for distances over one hundred miles, One Month. The period of computation will date from the day of issue, and the return journey must be completed before the expiration of the corresponding day in the week, or the corresponding date in the month following respectively.

Passengers breaking their Journey.—The holder of any Single or Return Ticket may break his journey at any Station which may be short of the Station to which he is booked; always provided:—

1st. That the passenger on alighting presents his ticket to the Station Master, to be nipped and initialled.

2nd. That it has not been nipped at the same Station, or any Station in advance previously.

The Passenger may resume his journey at the Station where he alights, or at any Station ahead with the same ticket if it has not been previously so used.

Passengers' Luggage.—First Class Passengers are allowed of ordinary luggage, 84lbs.; Second Class, 56lbs. Any excess and articles of merchandise will be charged at Parcels' Rates.

Excess Luggage must be in the Booking Office fifteen minutes before the starting of the Train, so as to give sufficient time to have it weighed and stowed.

Passengers should have their names and the Station to which they are proceeding distinctly marked on their luggage, and see that it is properly labelled. If left behind and forwarded by a subsequent Train through neglect of this precaution, ordinary Parcels' Rates will be charged. To prevent mistakes, all old labels should be removed. The Company will not be responsible for any luggage unless it be specially booked and paid for, and the name of the owner and its destination distinctly marked thereon, as per By-law XIX.

All unclaimed luggage kept at Stations twelve hours after its carriage by Railway will be charged the usual Cloak-Room rates for each package, and the Company reserve the right to sell the same if unclaimed after six months.
