CLEAN AIR ACT (CONTROL OF CEMENT DUST)
REGULATIONS, 1971.

- Citation. 1. These regulations may be cited as the Clean Air Act (Control of Cement Dust) Regulations, 1971.
- Commencement. 2. These regulations shall come into operation on and from the 1st day of December, 1971.
- Application. 3. These regulations apply to any premises which for the purposes of the Clean Air Act, 1964 are scheduled premises within the following classifications:—
(a) concrete works;
(b) cement product manufacturing works.
- Duty to prevent air pollution. 4. A person who is the occupier of any premises to which these regulations apply shall conduct any trade, industry or process and operate any industrial plant or vehicle used in connection therewith in or on the scheduled premises by such practicable means as may be necessary to prevent or minimise air pollution.
- Particular duties. 5. Without prejudice to the generality of regulation 4, a person who is the occupier of any premises to which these regulations apply shall, in relation to those premises and to any trade, industry or process conducted or industrial plant or vehicle used in or on those premises—
(a) take all practicable means to ensure that in the area of working operations all roads are sealed and capable of being swept and that grid covered channels are provided leading to a pit of ample size at such reasonably frequent intervals as will enable the washing down of any spillage to be carried out over a relatively small area;
(b) take all practicable means to ensure that metal loads are wetted before tipping, and that only sand sufficiently moist to prevent dust being emitted during tipping is used, and where that is impracticable shall ensure that metal or sand being tipped is covered or otherwise so handled as to prevent the emission of dust;
(c) ensure that where cement is tipped shrouds are provided and used to prevent dust emission;
(d) ensure that where overhead loading bins are used, the top of each bin is totally enclosed;

- (e) ensure that where trucks are tipping aggregate, wind shields or open fronted sheds extending not less than six feet from the front of the hopper are provided and used;
- (f) provide spray nozzles on wind shields and on the foot of each conveyor belt and ensure that they are used;
- (g) ensure that all conveyor belts carrying dry material are enclosed so as to prevent the emission of dust;
- (h) ensure that water sprays are used on the charging end of any bulk concrete delivery truck while that truck is charging, in order to prevent dust from becoming airborne;
- (i) provide bag filters on the exhaust of any cement silo and ensure that they are used;
- (j) take all practicable means to ensure that all discharged dust from any weighing hopper is vented to a silo;
- (k) ensure that all cement at all stages from the silo through the process of weighing to the mixing is completely enclosed;
- (l) take all practicable means to ensure that all permanent stockpiles are covered or otherwise effectively treated to prevent wind blown dust being emitted;
- (m) ensure that all sand loads are covered or that trucks used for the conveyance of sand conform to the requirements of the Traffic Act, 1919, in so far as that Act relates to the securing and carrying of loads; and
- (n) where fences, walls, buildings or other barriers are inadequate to prevent wind blown dust being carried beyond the boundaries of the premises, establish and maintain a screen of trees or provide other sufficient windbreak for that purpose.

Penalty.

6. A person who contravenes or fails to comply with any of these regulations is guilty of an offence and is liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars and, in the case of a continuing offence against the regulations, to a further penalty of forty dollars for each day during which the offence continues.

HEALTH ACT, 1911-1970

City of South Perth.

P.H.D. 810/61; Ex. Co 2972.

WHEREAS under the provisions of the Health Act 1911-70, a local authority may make or adopt bylaws and may alter amend or repeal any bylaws so made or adopted: Now, therefore, the City of South Perth being a local authority within the meaning of the Act and having adopted the Model Bylaws described as Series "A" as reprinted pursuant to the Reprinting of Regulations Act 1954 and published in the Government Gazette on the 17th July 1963, doth hereby resolve that the said adopted By-laws shall be amended so far as Part I thereof is concerned by—deleting Bylaw 19 and inserting the following new Bylaw in its place:—

19. (1) No person other than an authorised employee of the Council or a person authorised in writing by the Council shall enter or be on any land used by the Council for the deposit of refuse, garbage or rubbish except for the purpose of depositing of refuse, garbage or rubbish thereon.

(2) No person shall deposit any refuse, garbage or rubbish other than at a position on the land designated by an employee of the Council or a person authorised in writing by the Council or indicated by signs.

(3) No person other than an authorised employee of the Council or a person authorised in writing by the Council shall interfere with or remove any material or thing what-so-ever from any land used by the Council for the deposit of refuse, garbage or rubbish.

(4) No person shall light or cause to be burnt any refuse, garbage or rubbish on any land used by the Council for the deposit of refuse, garbage or rubbish except on a site specified by the Council and under such conditions as the Council may impose.

(5) No person shall deposit any motor vehicle body or other material not easily compressible on any land under the control of the Council except at a place set aside by the Council for the purpose and except in accordance with such conditions as the Council may from time to time impose.

(6) The driver of a vehicle upon entry on any land set aside by the Council for the purpose of depositing refuse, garbage or rubbish shall make payment of a fee as follows:—

(i) Vehicles of one ton aggregate weight and over—$2.00.

(ii) All other vehicles—$0.50.

Such charges shall be made as from the 1st January, 1972, provided that persons who are ratepayers or occupiers of premises in the City of South Perth shall be excluded from payment of the above charges subject to the production of their identification card issued by the City of South Perth.

(7) Every person entering on any land used by the Council for the depositing of refuse, garbage or rubbish shall obey all reasonable directions and instructions issued by authorised employees of the Council or persons authorised in writing by the Council.

(8) A person who deposits or disposes of any refuse, garbage or rubbish at a place other than a place set aside by the Council for the purpose, commits an offence.

City of South Perth.

Model Health By-laws—Amendment.

P.H.D. 810/61. Ex. Co. 2972.

IN pursuance of the powers in that behalf contained in the Health Act, 1911-1970, the Mayor and Councillors of the City of South Perth do hereby order that the Model Health By-laws as adopted by the City of South Perth and as amended from time to time pursuant to the said Act be amended:—

1. By adding after By-law 12 in Part 1 the following:—

12A. (1) The occupier of every premises where pig wash or pig swill is held before disposal shall provide receptacles each having a tight fitting lid with a flange overlapping the top of the receptacle.

(2) Every occupier of such premises as aforesaid shall provide a completely fly-proof ventilated structure having a floor constructed of an impervious material and every receptacle containing pig wash or pig swill shall be kept in such structure at all times.

(3) Every occupier of such premises as aforesaid shall:

- (a) cause all pig wash and pig swill found on the premises to be placed in such receptacles;
- (b) cause every such receptacle to be covered with its lid at all times except when being filled or emptied;
- (c) maintain such receptacles in a thoroughly clean and efficient condition;
- (d) when required by an Inspector thoroughly cleanse and disinfect every such receptacle;
- (e) ensure that every such receptacle is emptied once weekly or so much more frequently as an Inspector may direct.

2. By deleting By-law 32 of Part 1 of the said By-laws and inserting in lieu thereof the following:—

32. (1) The owner of every dwelling shall, unless otherwise authorised in writing by the Local Authority, and the owner of every building other than a dwelling shall when so ordered in writing by the Local Authority, cause the building to be provided with—

- (a) spouting and downpipes fixed to the eaves of the roof of the building sufficient to receive without overflowing all rain water flowing from the roof; and
- (b) drains connected to the down pipes and sufficient in size and laid with sufficient fall to carry off all storm water and rain water falling on the building.

(2) When the owner of a dwelling is authorised in writing by the Local Authority not to comply with the provisions of Sub-By-law (1) hereof, such written authorisation may be complete or partial and may also contain directions as to such alternative manner of receiving and disposing of rainwater falling on the building, as the Local Authority thinks proper, and the owner shall comply with such directions.

(3) The owner of every building shall properly maintain all spouting, down pipes, drains and other fittings provided in compliance with this By-law.

Passed at a Meeting of the City of South Perth held on the 28th of May, 1969.

LEGAL PRACTITIONERS ACT, 1893-1970.

Crown Law Department,
Perth, 25th November, 1971.

ACTING pursuant to the powers conferred by section 64 of the Legal Practitioners Act, 1893-1970, the Judges of the Supreme Court of Western Australia, and The Barristers' Board constituted under that Act, have made the general order set out hereunder.

W. J. ROBINSON,
Under Secretary for Law.

GENERAL ORDER.

CONVEYANCING REMUNERATION ORDER, 1971.

- Citation. 1. This order may be cited as the Conveyancing Remuneration Order, 1971.
- Commencement. 2. This order shall take effect upon the expiration of one calendar month from the date on which it is published in the Government Gazette.
- Application. 3. This order applies where—
(a) in relation to remuneration for instructions, the initiating instructions are received after this order takes effect; and
(b) in relation to remuneration for items other than instructions, the services on those items are performed after this order takes effect, but does not affect the rights of a practitioner or client in relation to remuneration for instructions received, or services performed, before this order takes effect.
- Interpretation. 4. In this order unless the contrary intention appears—“clause” means a clause of this order;
“instructions”—
(a) in relation to items 1 to 7, both inclusive, includes the initial attendance when instructions are taken and all services performed in or towards the completion of the business other than any of the business or services referred to in item 8 or 9; and
(b) in relation to item 8, includes the initial attendance when instructions are taken and all services performed in or towards the completion of the registration of the required documents, but does not include the alteration of the contract of sale, the preparation of any documents other than a transfer, or the adjustment of rates and taxes;
“item” means an item of business or services specified in the Schedule to this order;
“reference” means a reference number in a column with the heading “Ref.” under an item;
“remuneration” means the maximum remuneration of practitioners.
- Maximum remuneration in conveyancing matters. 5. The remuneration in respect of any item is, subject to the other provisions of this order, the maximum remuneration specified in respect of that item opposite the appropriate reference.
- Items 1, 4, 5—acting for both parties. 6. Subject to clause 7, where a practitioner properly acts for both parties in respect of item 1, 4 or 5, the remuneration is the total of the remunerations specified opposite the appropriate references for the parties.
- Acting for purchaser-mortgagor and mortgagee. 7. Where a practitioner properly acts for a purchaser-mortgagor and a mortgagee in respect of the same business only one remuneration applies in respect of instructions.
- Item 4—amount secured. 8. In relation to the remunerations specified in item 4—
(a) where, for any portion of the amount secured, there is an existing collateral security prepared by the same practitioner after this order takes effect and within one year prior to the instructions, that amount shall be reduced by that portion; and
(b) where the security is for an annuity, the amount secured is deemed to be the total amount of the annuity to be paid—
(i) if for a fixed term, up to a maximum of twelve times the annual rate; and
(ii) if terminable on life, twelve times the annual rate.
- Items 1 to 7—Incomplete business. 9. The remuneration in respect of any business in items 1 to 7, both inclusive, that is not completed is such proportion of the remuneration specified opposite the appropriate reference as is reasonable in the circumstances.
- Item 8—application. 10. Item 8 does not apply if the practitioner was instructed to prepare the contract or act on it before its execution.
- Item 8—acting for both parties. 11. Where a practitioner properly acts for both parties in respect of item 8 the remuneration is 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ % of the total of the remunerations specified opposite the appropriate references for the parties.

- Item 8—
of rates and taxes. 12. Where a practitioner acts for a purchaser in respect of item 8 and, on instructions from the purchaser, adjusts the rates and taxes, the remuneration shall be increased by $15.00.
- Item 8—
exclusive remuneration. 13. Where item 8 applies, a practitioner acting in respect thereof is not entitled to any remuneration other than in accordance with that item and, if the case requires, with clause 11 or 12.
- Instructions
to which items 1 to 8 do not apply. 14. The remuneration for instructions in respect of business to which any of the items 1 to 8, both inclusive, do not apply is an amount that is reasonable having regard to the skill and responsibility involved, the value of the property in question, the complexity of the business, and other circumstances of the case.
- Item 9—
application. 15. Subject to clause 16, item 9 applies in relation to business in respect of which there is no express provision in any other order or rule relating to costs and to which item 8 does not apply.
- Item 9—
qualification. 16. Where the business referred to in clause 15 is unusually complex or urgent, the remuneration for item 9 in respect of that business is an amount that is reasonable in the circumstances.
